Service, U.S. Official Says

Providing development of the Edmonton airport is undertaken on the scale at present planned, this city undoubtedly will be a part of call on the projected Mexico-Alaska air route. Col. Monroe Johnson, assistant secretary of commerce for the United States, told city businessmen and aviation officials at a banquet held in honor of visiting U.S. government and aviation leaders at the Macdonald hotel Friday night.

Col. Johnson headed a party of American airmen who arrived by plane from Calgary at 4:30 p.m. Friday to inspect Edmonton airport facilities in connection with the proposed international air route.

He stated on arrival that he would make the decision as to whether this city would be a point on the Mexico-Canada air line over which transport planes will carry mail and passengers.

BIG MUSICAL FEATURE FILM FOR EMPRESS

Nine New Song Hits Are Featured in "Wake Up and Live"

New song hits by Gordon and Bevell, are Hollywood song-writers who have written many of the nation's leading musical success, feature "Wake Up and Live," the Twentieth Century-Fox production featuring Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie and Alice Faye, which opens Monday at the Empress theatre.

Mark Gordon and Harry Revell, respectively the "words and music" of a combination that has created successfully, have turned out such well-known hits as "Old You Ever See a Dream Walking," "You Never Know, You Won't," "You'll Be a Word of Warning," "You Hit the Outstanding Hits."

For "Wake Up and Live," which carries the Walter Winchell-Bernie Revell team to the screen, Gordon and Revell combined "Never in a Million Years," "It's a Day of You," "The Building Over," "There's a Little in Me," "You Hit the Out," "Old You Ever See a Dream Walking," "You Never Know, You Won't," "You'll Be a Word of Warning," "You Hit the Outstanding Hits."

Two of the numbers, "Wake Up and Live" and "There's a Little in Me," are sung by Alice Faye, for whom Winchell composed his hit, "Somebody Loves Me." Some critics have announced that Alice Faye gave her finest performance as "Old You Ever See a Dream Walking," but they might say that, we believe, with more conviction, after they enjoy her in this picture.

New Type Musical Picture "Top Of Town" Is Rialto Hit

"Sins of Children" Is Second Attraction on Double-Feature Program

Manager William Long of the theatre is taking great pleasure in presenting to Edmonton theatre-goers today and all next week until Friday one of the finest double-features programs of the current season. The picture, "Top of the Town," featuring a host of stars of radio and screen. The second attraction is "Sins of Children," starring Eric Linden and Cecilia Parker.

Rebels of sprightly music, madcap fun and lively laughter have recovered by way of movie comedy all the way from Hollywood to this city, where the Universal film-makers, in the "Top of the Town," crystallizes these desirable qualities on the Rialto theatre scene starting today.

The breezy story concerns a millionaire with a lot of happy ideas that have three strikes on them. The energetic dancer, portrayed by Doris Nolan, has plenty of curves in the right places. Her charms, as well as her ideas, keep a handsome young orchestra leader swinging. Appropriately, he is a swing band leader. This role is played by the dancing wizard of Broadway stage and screen, George Murphy. In the picture, George is about to open a modern swanky night club. Doris Nolan's idea is to let her manage the place.

She drives George frantic with her ideas. The Moonbeam Room opens at last and Doris springs a mixture of high end money-shoes on an unsuspecting audience. The performers include Gertrude Niesen, who plays the role of the girl who is in love with George. She is played by Gertrude Niesen, who plays the role of the girl who is in love with George. She is played by Gertrude Niesen, who plays the role of the girl who is in love with George.

It is also featured. There are 200 beautiful dancing girls and two musical groups numbering more than 100 singers who change the scene. The picture, "Top of the Town," is a musical picture, which B. F. Zedman will produce for Grand National.

Free dinnerware will be given away to late patrons next week from Monday to Thursday.

Rialto Star O'BRIEN, FONDA STAR IN "SLIM" NEW THRILLER

Margaret Lindsay Also In Colorful Story at Strand Theatre

It's quite an accomplishment these days—after the movies have seemingly invaded all the trades and professions to find interesting characters to weave stories around—for a film producer to discover one occupation which hitherto hadn't been pictured.

And that's just what Warner Bros. has done in the case of "Slim," an interesting and exciting melodrama which had its first look showing at the Strand theatre today.

STURDY LADS "Slim" is a story of the colorful, perilous, land-and-sea life of the high-tension ironmen, those sturdy lads who put up with long hours across the land and strain the wires that carry electrical power over the mountains and deserts.

With Pat O'Brien, Henry Fonda, Margaret Lindsay and Stuart Erwin in the leading roles, and such excellent supporting players as J. Perrett Macdonald, John Lest, Jane Wyman and Dick Powell, "Slim" proves to be a first-class movie, with an entirely new background.

The very capable Fonda carries the title role. He's a farm lad who comes to the aid of "Red," played by the always appealing O'Brien, he gets a job and the two of them, he introduces him to his girl, friend, Cally, a nurse, played by Margaret Lindsay. Pat loves her, but doesn't ask her to marry him because he can never settle down on a farmstead job. He must keep moving all the time. Cally likes him.

Spoken Slim.

One Week Commencing Today Exceptional Double Feature Program

To the Public of Edmonton

Many people suspect that, when a Theatre advertises a double bill program, one of the pictures is poor. We can emphatically guarantee you that this double feature program is without exception the finest we have ever shown. That is one of the reasons why we have chosen for six days, TOP OF THE TOWN is a BIG musical comedy with four of the greatest comedians in the world today, Henry Armetta, Hugh Herbert, Gregory Ratoff and Masha Auer. You will be thrilled by the singing of Gertrude Niesen, and Lee Tracy. The Ambrose number alone is worth the price of admission. In other words, TOP OF THE TOWN is one of the greatest musicals of this or any other year.

SINS OF THE CHILDREN is one of the best pictures it has been my privilege to see during the past twelve years. If you do not come out of the Theatre convinced that this beautiful and sentimental story of two young people in love is not the finest picture you've seen in a long time, we will be greatly surprised.

We urge you not to miss this exceptionally entertaining show.

Yours sincerely,
W. J. LONG, Manager.

Tall Tales

Bucks for Ducks

TO YOUR right on this page you will see a layout that is said to be the first ever presented of the man known from the end of the century to the present as the "Montague" duck. The duck is a gruff, old fellow with a head that is as big as a watermelon, a body that is as long as a football, and a tail that is as wide as a fan. He is a duck, but he is not a duck in the ordinary sense of the word. He is a duck in the sense that he is a duck who has been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things. He is a duck who has been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things.

The Montague is a duck who has been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things. He is a duck who has been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things. He is a duck who has been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things. He is a duck who has been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things. He is a duck who has been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things.

The one will be back here. He is said to have challenged Ding Crosby to play a match at 250 a hole. Crosby, in his usual club, while Montague was to use only a baseball bat, a spade and a garden rake. Crosby, who is a smart game in the low sciences and figured he was a cinch to win. Montague, tired off by tooting the ball and hitting it with the bat the same as to knock out flies. He got around 250 yards and landed in a sand trap. He missed the ball out and onto the green with the spade. Then he took the garden rake and using the handle like a billiard cue, dropped the ball into the cup for a little shot. Crosby, who needed a four, quit right there.

Montague, who had been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things. He is a duck who has been around for a long time, and he has seen a lot of things. New Record Shaves 2 1-5 Seconds Off Old Mark; Allish Defeat in Men's 220 Is Major Upset in West End Meet;

Ruth Lett Wins Title

By JEFFREY DECHENE

One provincial record was broken, and application will be made for recognition of another, in the West End Swimming Club gala held last night in the West End Pool.

Douglas Matheson led the boys' scoring West End Club by establishing a new provincial record in the junior boys' 100-yard swim. Doug churned the distance in 1:17.4, compared to 1:18.8 the mark originally held by J. Cumberland of Brantford.

WISS FEATURE RACE While the large crowd lustily cheered favorites on, Bob Matheson, 16-year-old brother, brought home a thrilling victory over the West End clubmate, Alex MacDonald, in the men's 220-yard swim for the provincial championship.

Norman Allish of the South Side Club, however, won a 41-link to give Bob Matheson his toughest opponent, though within waving distance all along, was a third being near up by MacDonald.

What is thought to be a new record was set in the junior girls' 100-yard swim, with Dai Band of the South Side, capturing the event in 1:18.15. Application for recognition of this mark will be made to the Canadian authorities.

YELLOW IRIS ~ ~ ~ A Million, Slow, Steady Complete as This Book, Four's Saturday ~ ~ ~ BY AGATHA CHRISTIE

FRANÇOIS DOIROT stretched out his feet toward the electric radiator set in the wall. His first arrangements of the bars pleased his orderly mind.

Never did it achieve the symmetry.

The telephone bell rang. Doroit rose.

The Resurrection Of Pauline

There are three very popular methods for analyzing time series data: (1) moving averages, (2) exponential smoothing, and (3) regression. Each of these methods has its own strengths and weaknesses. Moving averages are simple to use and understand, but they can be slow to respond to changes in the data. Exponential smoothing is more sophisticated, but it can be difficult to choose the right smoothing constant. Regression is the most powerful of the three, but it can be overkill for simple data sets.

For this assignment, you will be using a software package called Minitab. Minitab is a powerful statistical software package that can be used for a wide variety of statistical analyses. In this assignment, you will be using Minitab to analyze the data from the "Sales" data set. The data set contains information about the sales of a company over a period of time. You will be using Minitab to calculate the moving average, exponential smoothing, and regression for the data. You will then compare the results of the three methods and discuss which method you think is the best for the data.

The assignment is divided into three parts. In the first part, you will calculate the moving average for the data. In the second part, you will calculate the exponential smoothing for the data. In the third part, you will calculate the regression for the data. You will then compare the results of the three methods and discuss which method you think is the best for the data.

EDMONTON, ALTA., JULY 24, 1937

Little Orphan Annie

WE'VE ALL BEEN PROPERLY BAFLED BY A MAGICIAN DISAPPEARING BEFORE OUR VERY EYES—OR HAVE WE? AT ANY RATE, IT'S AN OLD TRICK—BUT IT CAME AS AN ASTOUNDING SHOCK TO CERTAIN LEARNED GENTLEMEN, JUST A WEEK AGO—YEP, THEY SAW OLD AM—THEN THEY DIDN'T SEE HIM—AND THEY HAVEN'T SEEN HIM SINCE—BUT LET'S TURN OUR ATTENTION TO ANNIE AND MR. AND MRS. NELSON G. BRITTLEWIT—

GEE—"DADDY'D" SURE BE SPRISID IF HE GUESSED ALL THAT'S HAPPENED—HE SAID THIS TIME WHEN HE HAD TO GO AWAY, HE WAS LEAVIN' ME IN TH' CARE O' SOME ONE WHO WOULD LAST—MR. AM—

HA! HA! IT SURE IS SORT O' FUNNY—AM, WHO'S SUPPOSED TO LIVE FOREVER, AND HE'S GONE IN LESSN TWO WEEKS, SUCH AS A WHISTLE—AND HERE WE ARE—

IT ALL HAPPENED SO FAST I'M ALL MIXED UP 'BOUT JUST WHAT DID HAPPEN—I'M 'WARD TO MR. AND MRS. BRITTLEWIT—BUT I'M NOT SURE IF I'M 'DOPTED Z'ACTLY OR NOT—BUT I GUESS IT'S ALL RIGHT—

THEY SEEMED TO WANT US—WE'LL TRY AWFUL HARD TO LOVE THEM—GEE, WOULDN'T IT BE SWELL TO HAVE REAL FOLKS OF OUR OWN, LIKE OTHER KIDS?

ARF!

NELSON BRITTLEWIT! YOU ARE THE LAZIEST MAN IN THIS TOWN—HOW DO YOU EVER EXPECT TO GET A JOB JUST SITTING THERE?

AW, MY BRAINS AIN'T IN MY FEET—I GOT A BIG DEAL COOKIN'—SEE? LEAVE ME ALONE, CAN'TCHA?

HUH! WHAT TRIPE WILL THEY PRINT NEXT? RIGHT ON THE FRONT PAGE, TOO! A SEA-SERPENT SEEN GOING DOWN THE BAY! STARTED A PANIC ON A FERRY BOAT, THEY CLAIM—WHAT ROT! I DON'T SEE HOW THEY HAVE THE NERVE TO PRINT SUCH STUFF—

THAT'S THE SECOND TIME THAT THING'S BEEN SEEN—MAYBE IT'S SOME KIND OF A BOAT—SORT OF A SUBMARINE OR SOMETHING—

NONSENSE—NEXT THING YOU'LL BE TRYING TO TELL ME IT'S MAGIC—I'M A HARD-HEADED BUSINESS MAN—I'M ONE BIRD WHOSE EYE IS QUICKER THAN THE HAND—SEE?

NOW WATCH, SANDY—SEE? JUST A PLAIN SUGAR BOWL—

NOW, IF ONLY I CAN DO THIS THE WAY MR. AM TAUGHT ME—THERE—I GUESS THAT'S RIGHT—KEEP YOUR EYES ON IT NOW—

WHEE! NOW WHERE DID IT GO? BAFFLIN' AND MOST VERY MYSTERIOUS, EH?

WHY! WHAT'S THE MATTER, NELSON? YOU LOOK SORTA GREEN AROUND TH' GILLS—

B-BILIIOUS ATTACK—MUST BE MY STUMMICK—I'M GOING TO TAKE SOME SODA AND LIE DOWN—

Maw Green

ISN'T THAT SAM SPAVIN?

YEP—THAT'S HIM, ALL RIGHT—SHOOTIN' OFF HIS MOUTH, AS USUAL—

DOES HE STILL BUTT INTO EVERY CONVERSATION AS BAD AS HE USED TO?

HUH! WORSE, IF THAT'S POSSIBLE—

HE WAS ALWAYS A GREAT WAN FOR HAVIN' HIS OPINION—

YIS, AND FER SHARIN HIS OPINION WITH WAN AND ALL—

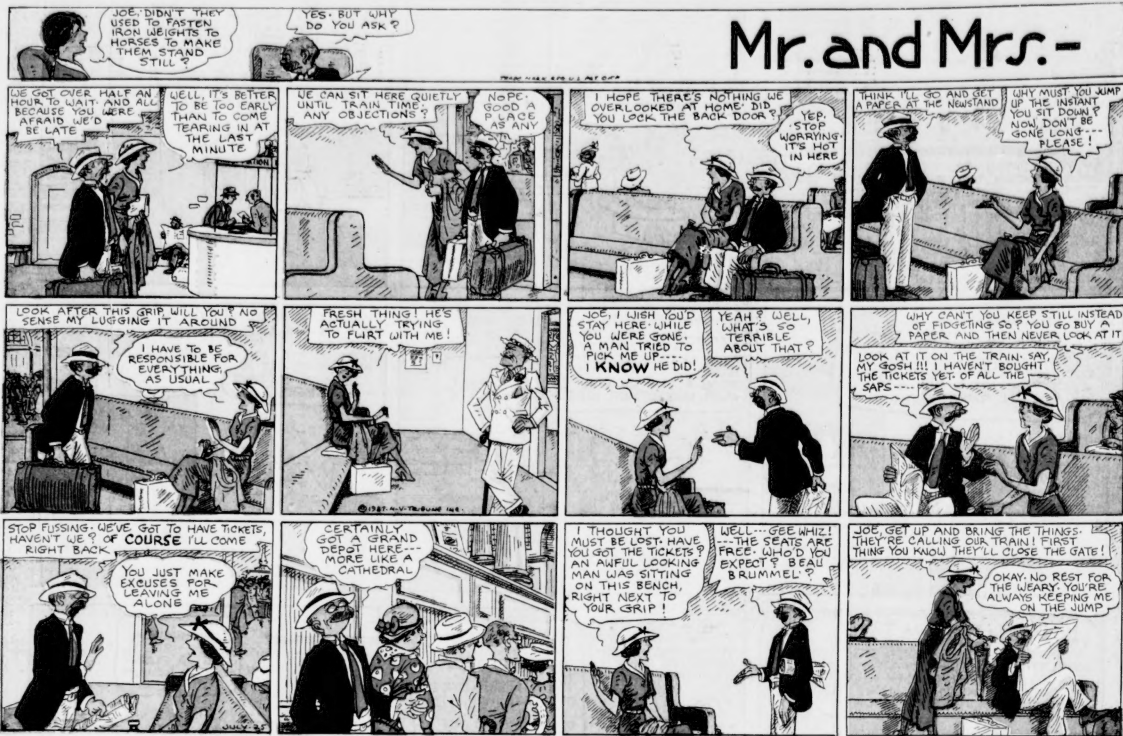

WELL—ALL OI CAN SAY IS, HE'D BETTER BE CAREFUL, THROWIN' HIS OPINIONS AROUND SO CARELESS—

FIRST THING HE KNOWS HE'LL HAVE PASSED OUT HIS LAST WAN, AND NO CHANCE O' HIM IVER HAVIN' ANOTHER—

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

The OCELOT

ONCE RANGED FROM ARKANSAS TO PARAGUAY, BUT TODAY IT IS ALMOST EXTINCT IN THE UNITED STATES. A FEW STILL ABOUND IN THE LOWER RIO GRANDE VALLEY, OF TEXAS.

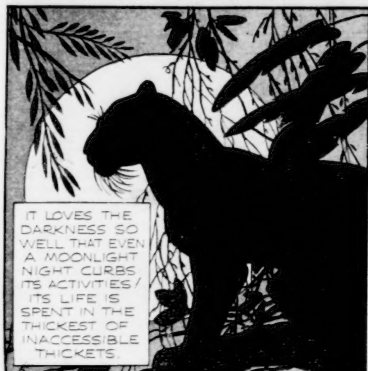

BEING A MEMBER OF THE CAT FAMILY, THE OCELOT CLIMBS WELL, AND TAKES A HEAVY TOLL OF BIRDS

THE OCELOT'S COAT IS A THING OF BEAUTY, AND NO TWO ANIMALS ARE MARKED ALIKE. THE PATTERN IS MADE UP OF STRIPES, SPOTS, BARS AND SMUDGES

THE ANIMAL WANDERS FAR AT EACH NIGHT'S HUNT, AND YOUNG PIGS, LAMBS AND POULTRY FREQUENTLY ARE CARRIED FROM FARMERS' PENS.

IT LOVES THE DARKNESS SO WELL THAT EVEN A MOONLIGHT NIGHT CURBS ITS ACTIVITIES. ITS LIFE IS SPENT IN THE THICKEST OF INACCESSIBLE THICKETS.

THE BEAUTIFUL COAT MAKES THE OCELOT A MUCH DESIRED TROPHY, AND THE ANIMALS ARE HUNTED AND TRAPPED HEAVILY. THEY ARE VERY DOCILE, DO NOT ATTACK MAN, AND GIVE UP WITHOUT A STRUGGLE WHEN TRAPPED, EVEN THOUGH HELD BY ONLY A SINGLE TOE.
